Foreword

Through the medium of this book we express to our fellow alumni a hearty greeting and to our fellow students a fond farewell. We have endeavored in its pages to portray truthfully the many sides of student life at Millsaps in nineteen hundred and twenty, and if in coming years, when incidents of college life grow dim, this volume should help you to recall familiar faces and pleasant memories, then we have not labored in vain.

Dedication

To

Dr. David Martin Key
A.M., Ph.D.

*The friend of every student,
a polished gentleman, a manly man, in appreciation of his deep interest in and whole-hearted devotion to Millsaps, his personal charm and character, we,
the Class of 1920, respectfully dedicate this volume of the Bobasha.*

DEWEY STEVENS DEARMAN, Π K A New Augusta, Miss.
Master of Science

B.S., Millsaps College, '19; Assistant in Chemistry and Physics, Preparatory School, '20.

Dewey is an ex-"several things," but now he is a rampant educator who dares to lock horns with any of the profs on any subject in chemistry. He is a hard, energetic student who takes himself seriously, and we predict that he will make others do so, too, some day.

JOHN ROY BANE, Σ Y Eupora, Miss.
Bachelor of Arts

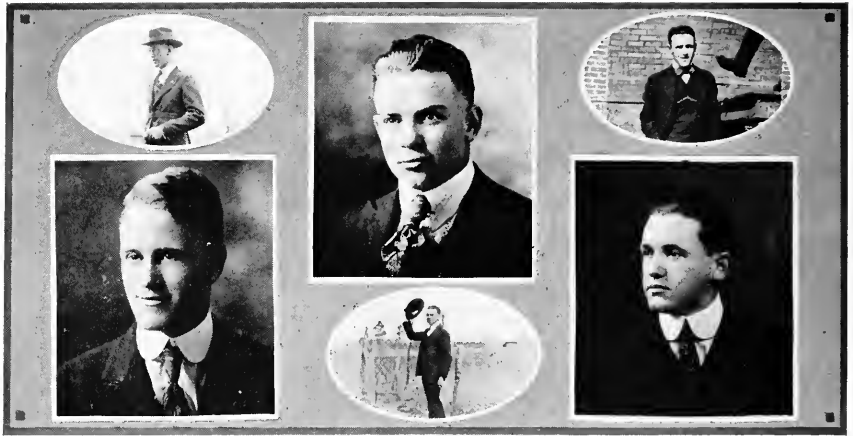

Y. M. C. A.; L. L. S.; American Legion; Overseas Club; Freshman Debater, '17; Purple and White Staff, '17, '18; Associate Editor, '20; Science Club, '19; Delegate to Blue Ridge, '19; Class Poet, '20; President L. L. S., '20; President Y. M. C. A., '20; Assistant in English, '20; Editor-in-Chief of Bobashela.

All the way to France and back, and still he finishes with his class. That's Roy. He is warm and open in heart, consistent in purpose, and is inclined to be dictatorial, but 'tis merely his firm will.

GEORGE ROBERT BENNETT, K A Madison, Miss.
Bachelor of Science

G. L. S.; President Y. M. C. A., 1900; Delegate to Southern Student Conference, Asheville, N. C., 1900; Superintendent of Education of Madison County, 1916-20.

Robert is one of the old "come-backs," having attended college here the latter part of the last century. He is a good farmer spoiled by education, but still he is congenial, young in spirit, and eager to learn.

WILLIAM ERNEST BUFKIN, II K A, Σ Y Glancy, Miss.

"Swep" was scheduled to graduate several years ago, but instead he went off to New York after a business course and came back with a wife. We then thought we had lost him, but he came back, and is a member of the All-One Club and is an encyclopedia of knowledge.

ALEXANDER PEALE HARMON, $K \Sigma$ Vicksburg, Miss.

Bachelor of Science

Y. W. C. A.; President Y. W. C. A., '19; Science Club '19, Secretary '20; Secretary Senior Class, '20; Literary Editor Bobashela.

Very few girls have had to be sister to seventeen Seniors, but this has been Kathryn's task and she has accomplished it nobly. We have all learned to love her—she is so generous-hearted, patient, polite, reserved and friendly. Kathryn is always the same anywhere you meet her, and she can be depended on to help in any good cause.

Burnham and song are synonymous terms. He has been a member of the quartet for three years and is "its chief warbler," but there is more to him than a "burst of bubbles."

REUBEN BAYS LAMB Eupora, Miss.

Bachelor of Arts

Y. M. C. A.; L. L. S.; American Legion; Secretary L. L. S. '18, Vice-President '19, '20; Delegate to Blue Ridge, '18; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, '19; Science Club, '19; Tennis Club, '20; Assistant Art Editor Bobashela.

Our little "Sheep" came to Millsaps with a determination to go through with a splendid scholastic record, and this he has done. He is quiet and reserved, but very friendly.

HENRY ALLEN NORTON, II K A Logtown, Miss.

L. S., '20; Historian Senior Class, '20; Assistant Business Manager Bobashela.

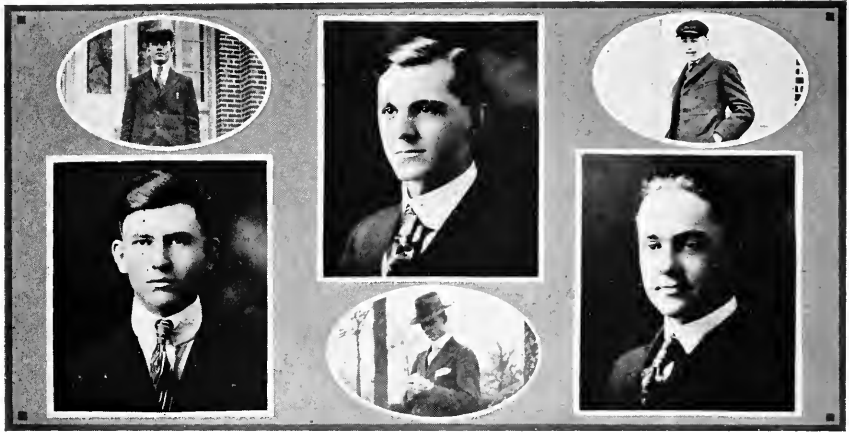

"Pretty" is his name, but we refuse to tell you how he got it. He is best described as a care-free fellow who does not worry over what turns up.

Full of grit, humor and confidence—that's "Fatty." As an enthusiastic baseball fan and keeper of batting averages, he admits no peer. If you are fortunate enough to win "Fatty's" friendship there is nothing too great or too small for him to do for you.

LEO BOGAN ROBERTS Laurel, Miss.

Bachelor of Arts

Y. M. C. A.; G. L. S.; American Legion; Geiger Chemistry Medal, '18; Secretary G. L. S., '18, '20; Science Club, '19, '20; Commencement Debater, '20; Assistant in Chemistry, '19, '20; Class Editor of Bobashela.

Leo is a good student and in his four years here he has made an excellent scholastic record. He is absolutely individual, has his own ideas, which are as hard to overthrow as the Rock of Gibraltar, and he does not hesitate at any time to enter into an argument with a professor.

ROBERT EDWARD SIMPSON Crystal Springs, Miss.

Bachelor of Arts

Y. M. C. A.; G. L. S.; Preachers' League; Orchestra, '17, '18; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, '18; Vice-President Preachers' League, '18; Vice-President G. L. S., '19; Science Club, '19; Triangular Debater, '19; Preachers' Quartet, '19, '20.

"Brother" Simpson is one of our student preachers. He did not enter his Senior year until late because he was filling a charge for the Methodist preacher at McComb City. He is a friend to all, and we have the utmost confidence in him.

CHARLES GALLOWAY VENTRESS, $K \Sigma$ Woodville, Miss.

Bachelor of Arts

Overseas Club; American Legion; Mid-Session Debater, '15; Honor Council, '15; Pan-Hellenic Council, '20; Legion Editor Bobashela.

Charles is a jolly good fellow; a friend to everybody and everybody's friend. He is not a confirmed bachelor by any means, but he considers books better instructors than society belles, and to his studies he has applied himself diligently. He was scheduled to graduate two years ago, but he answered the call to service.

Paris, May 30.—The Big Four in the executive council of the League of Nations held a two hours' secret session this morning, at which the threatened secession of Great Britain and Germany was discussed. All four refused to talk for publication, but their troubled faces show that the danger of another world war has not yet been averted. Ex-Chief Justice Ernest Bufkin, representing the United States, has not slept for five hours in his ceaseless effort to bring about reconciliation. All eyes are turned on the man of the hour.

Memories

Among the beautiful pictures
That hang on memory's wall
Is one of our Alma Mater
Which seems the best of all.

The scenes on the dear old campus
In review pass one by one,
And the faces of scattered schoolmates
Recall the days that are gone.

The annual Bane of our college days
Rushes headlong to and fro,
And the two with countenance fuzzy
Have three where a lot ought to grow.

Harrell, Bullard, and Bufkin
(With Tremalchio's dinner in view),
Hasten on to the library, secluded,
Each to see what the other can do.

And the bookstone where books are in need
Has its devotees seeking their bread;
They go not for books, but to feast,
And each fellow escorts a co-ed.

Between the Freshmen and Seniors
Is a family, distinct and select:
The Knutts—they are fourteen in number—
Believe me, they are the elect.

Morse, Huntley, Shipman and Howorth,
Our athletes brawny and strong,
Carried off many an honor
In football, we'd wanted so long.

Our faculty consists of thirteen men,
With intellect deep and keen;
And if put to a favorite vote
Dippy Ducky and Prep would win.

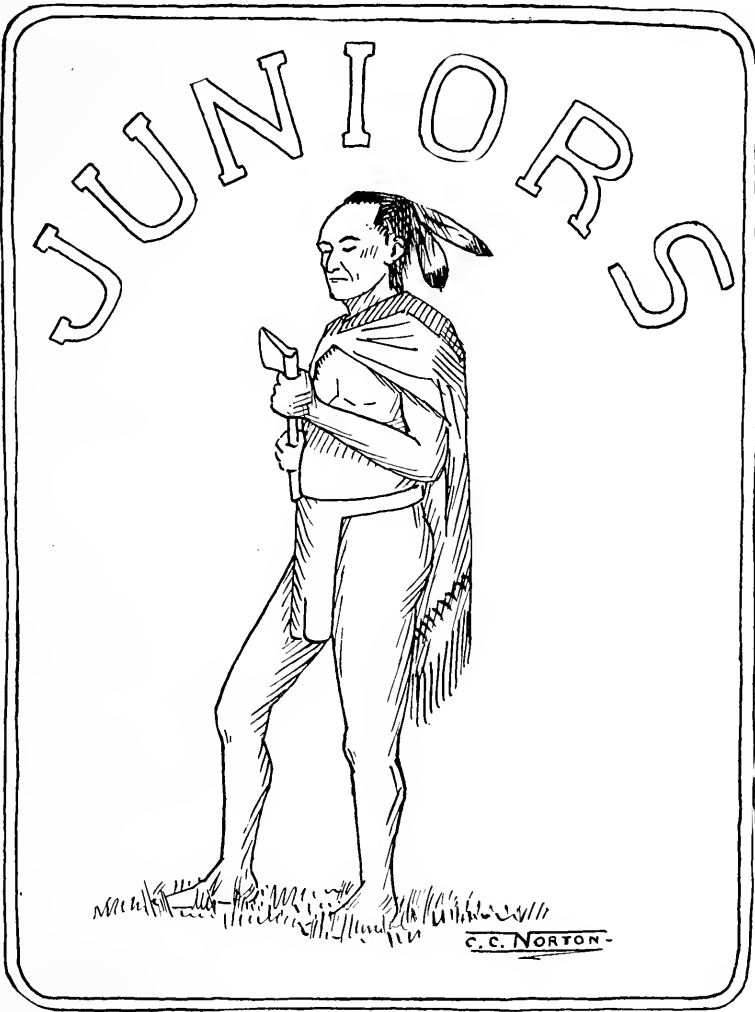

Sully comes with geology class,
But Harrell star-gazes it through,
While Bronco figures it out in math,
And Sanders jabbers "Parlez-vous?"

Watkins stares with visage lengthy,
Ferguson with the Preps does play,
Hamilton and Key just ride their jacks,
And Huddleston has little to say.

There's Mrs. Joyce, the school mother,
Joe Howorth with ambition possessed,
And Collye Alford with high ideals—
We call them Millsaps' best.

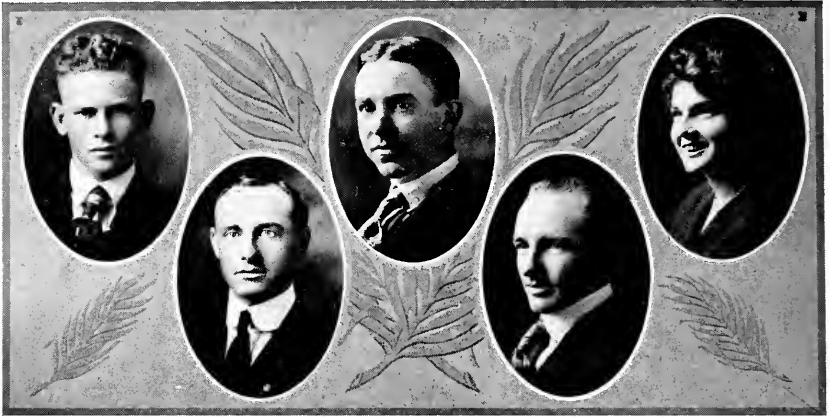

These are pictures we'll always remember;
They'll help to brighten our way,
And with roses will tint the shadows
In the twilight of life's long day.

A. KNUTT.

"M" WEARER FOR MANAGER IN BASEBALL

CARL GLENN HOWORTH

AUSTIN LUCKY SHIPMAN

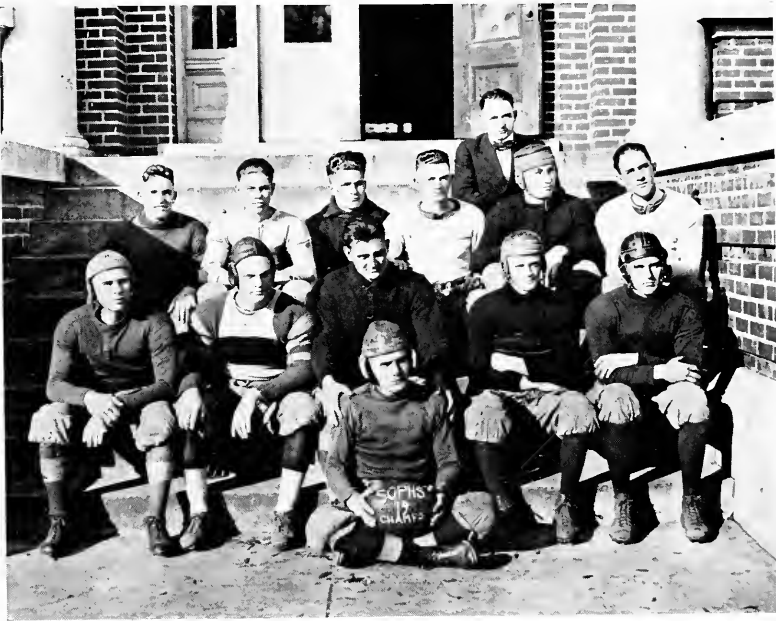

FOOTBALL MANAGER, 1920

"Ship" is a clever little backfield man—speedy, heady, and full of fight; three points that go to make a good football player. He knows football perhaps better than any other college man, and has played on the Varsity team for three years. Under the managership of such an aggressive player as "Ship," we can look forward to a good schedule next year.

HUGH McDONALD MORSE

CAPTAIN AND MANAGER FOOTBALL, 1919

"Donald" served in the double capacity of manager and captain the past season. He knows football "from A to izzard," and when it comes to grit and determination he is right there with the goods. He was a star player on the Freshman team, and when intercollegiate football opens up next season we are going to expect great things from "Donald."

Some very lively and interesting games were played this season between the various class teams. A spirit of keen rivalry existed almost akin to that spirit existing in inter-collegiate contests. The Sophomores, however, came through with a clean sheet.

During the first of the season the Sophs defeated the Junior-Senior team, 14-0, and next tugged with the Preps for 0-0. Then the Freshmen defeated the Preps, 9-0, and then the Sophs played a deadlock game with the Freshmen. The Junior-Seniors won from the Freshmen, 12-6; later, they defeated the Preps, 23-0. This left the championship to be decided between the Sophs and the Junior-Seniors. This was a battle royal. Standing like a victorious hero up to the very last minute, the Junior-Seniors yielded the victory to the Sophs when Stanford Morse kicked a field goal, making the score 3-0.

CONFERENCE APPROVES OF FOOT BALL

Petition Had Hardly Been Read Before One of the Members Was on His Feet in Bitter Protest Against the Idea; Another Speaker "Argued" that if Millsaps Participated in Intercollegiate Athletics, She Would Surely Go—He Didn't Say Where!

The goal is in sight. Since the... of the Conference last Friday morning it seems as if another objective of the Athletic Association would be attained. The question of intercollegiate football was brought before the Mississippi Athletic Conference in session at Meridian last week and was passed off favorably by a vote of 21 for and 14 against. The petition to which the... of the Mississippi Athletic Association...

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION FACULTY GRANTS ORGANIZED TUESDAY ATHLETICS CREDIT

New Officers Elected Are Full of Energy and "Pep," Each Being Familiar with His Particular Brand of Sport, and under Their Leadership Millsaps Will Rise Once More to the Heights of Eminence She Once Enjoyed—Volley Ball Already Popular.

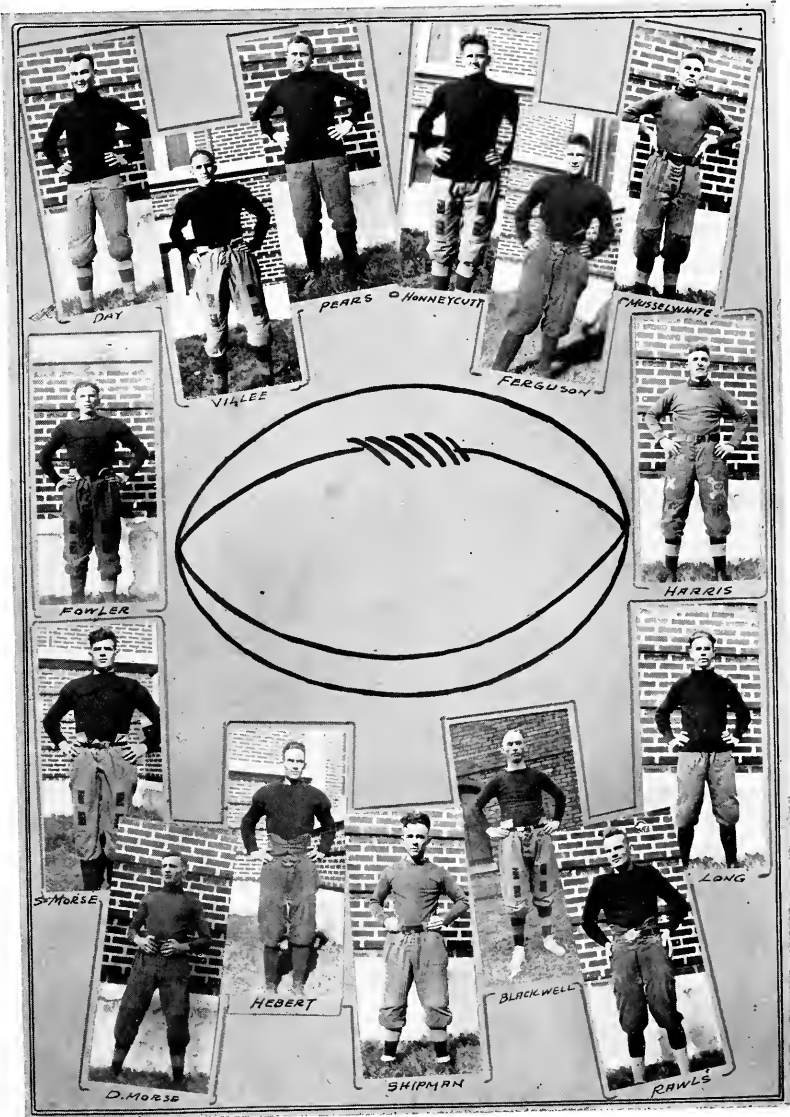

Carl G. Howorth presided over the essential in a good beginning next athletic season. We may have some spring practice. Intercollegiate football is the most hard-fought of all college sports. It is more than a game; it is a test of nerve and courage. We are preparing to meet the challenge of the coming season. We are prepared to meet the challenge of the coming season. AUSTIN LUCKY SHIPMAN

MANAGER BASKETBALL, 1920

Austin is little, but he gets over the court like a whirlwind, and his opponents immediately get the idea that he accomplishes whatever he attempts. He is a crafty player, and has the disheartening (to his opponents) trait of doing the unexpected. Austin also proved himself to be a very capable manager, as evidenced by the schedule of last season.

CARL GLENN HOWORTH

CAPTAIN BASKETBALL, 1920

"Oochie" was our old reliable star forward last season, and when given half a chance he was usually cocksure of a goal. He is quick in action and keeps a level head when on the court. Grit and "the go" are parts of his nature; to be sure, his opponents know he is there and presents a serious problem to be solved.

LEE BEVERLY HEBERT

MANAGER BASEBALL, 1920

Fans never worry about first base when "Bevy" is there; his mitt is sure and extends high and low. He has splendid self-control and rarely ever loses his head even in the tightest pinch, and is a speed merchant on the paths. "Bevy" puts in his playing the same energy that he does in his class work, and as manager of the club we never doubted that he would give us a good schedule.

CARL GLENN HOWORTH

CAPTAIN BASEBALL, 1920

"Oochie" is one of our seasoned veterans of four years' standing. During these years we have learned to depend on him, and he has never failed us in a pinch. He is a brainy player, an all-round man on the diamond, and his batting average has been well over .300 in his college baseball career. "Oochie" captains the team again this year. He is a good man and a hard fighter.
